Dear Bobby:

I am sorry to have missed you when you were in on Monday, but was off on a trip to Buffalo to address the Bar Association on "Bill Donovan Day".

I am delighted that you may do the article for Studies in Intelligence, and certainly appreciate your stopping in to discuss the material with Kirkpatrick. I hope I will have a chance to see you the next time you are in Washington.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

I was sorry not to see you when I was in Washington yesterday. I did, however, talk with Mr. Kirkpatrick at some length. I told him that while I couldn't possibly write an article to meet a deadline of May 15, I would try to write one to meet an August 1 deadline.

I have in mind writing on "The Role of Intelligence in Forming National Security Policy."

I add my prayers to yours that Foster's unhappy condition be mitigated as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours

Bill
